
Inside the Orchestra for Tiny Tots – Fall 2011

- 1) Orchestra music is everywhere - even in the movies
Star Wars by John Williams
- 2) Opposites in music
Rough and Smooth – L'Arlessiene by George Bizet
Slow and fast – Hungarian Dance No.5 by Johannes Brahms
- 3) Pretending to music
Sleeping Beauty Waltz by Peter Ilyich Tchaikowsky
- 4) *Sometimes when you pretend and sing with an orchestra, it's called... opera
Largo al Factotum from Barber of Seville by Gioacchino Rossini – Chad from Central City Opera
- 5) Practice makes you better - speaking of practice – peer success
Piano Concerto TBA
- 6) Speaking of little – smallest instrument in the orchestra
Flight of the Bumblebee by Nicolai Rimsky Korsakov
- 7) Speaking of opposites – what about the biggest
Le Elephant from the Carnival of the Animals by Camille Saint Saens
- 8) Pretending to be big - stomping like an elephant ... or a giant
Dance of the Knights from Romeo and Juliet by Serge Prokofiev
- 9) Being chased by a giant
Sabre Dance by Aram Khachaturian
- 10) When you running away from giants, you run out of breath
Finale from the Firebird by Igor Stravinsky
- 11) When you run in the house, you go to time out
Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 by Franz Liszt
- 12) Sometimes when you get into trouble, you go to bed early - bedtime can be scary
In the Hall of the Mountain King from Peer Gynt by Edward Grieg
- 13) Nobody wants you to be scared - getting tucked in with your favorite blanket and teddy bear
Nimrod from Enigma Variations by Sir Edward Elgar
- 14) Favorite time of the week
Morning Mood from Peer Gynt by Edward Grieg
- 15) Doing what your parents did when they were kids on Saturday morning
Looney Tunes Theme Music – Merrily We Roll Along / Merry-Go-Round Broke Down
- 16) Put on your cowboy hat and ride your horse
William Tell Overture by Gioacchino Rossini